Cats, Bridges & Trees: Yoga for Children

Presenter: Dorothy Fizzell

Date: Thursday, October 5, 2017

Time: 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Location: BNW (Burnaby)

Fee: $18.00 members, $22.00 non-members

(Please bring a yoga mat or a towel!)

Suitable for child care providers of children 3 years of age and up.

Children love to move! With yoga, children start to appreciate and control their body movements, control their breathing, and be involved in a fun, non-competitive physical activity. All children, regardless of age or ability can do yoga. Yoga uses children's imagination while they become stronger, more flexible, and more aware of how to control their breath and their body movements. Come explore yoga poses, have fun as we relax, breathe and stretch, and receive information on how to use yoga in a child care setting. Please wear comfortable clothing and bring a thin mat to lie down on.

Dorothy Fizzell has been practicing yoga for over 30 years, and is fully certified with several yoga associations. Dorothy has also been an Early Childhood Educator for 30 plus years, with the CCRR in Penticton, Westcoast Child Care Resource Centre in Vancouver and the ECD Committee in New Westminster, as well as helping to re-develop the Safe Spaces Bullying Prevention Program.

Marketing Your Family Child Care

Presenter: Vicki Lepper

Date: Wednesday, October 11, 2017

Time: 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Location: TRI (Coquitlam)

Fee: $18.00 members, $22.00 non-members

Suitable for family child care providers.

As child care providers, the notion of marketing ourselves or our child care setting often makes us feel uncomfortable. Somehow advertising seems out of step with the work we do. The fact is, however, that the ability to market our child care service in a tasteful and effective ways is one indicator of a professional child care provider. This workshop teaches providers how to identify, articulate, and sell the benefits of their child care program to potential clients using both traditional strategies and technology. Parents are using the Internet to find child care providers. This workshop will teach you the basics of marketing as well as using the Internet to help you maximize enrollment and income for your business.

Vicki Lepper has been providing licensed childcare in Coquitlam since 1989. Vicki is a passionate childcare advocate and was a board member for BC Family Child Care Association from 2011 to 2015. Vicki has been nominated for many awards and in 2012, she was the "Individual" recipient of "The Tri-Cities Award of Excellence Working with Young Children" for her exceptional work for making the Tri-Cities a better place for families and children. Vicki strongly believes in quality childcare by sharing her knowledge and experiences with those who have chosen childcare as their profession.

Nurturing Leadership

Presenter: Jacqueline Ewonus

Location: BNW (Burnaby)

Fee: $32.00 members, $42.00 non-members

Suitable for all early learning child care professionals working in the field; as well as ECE instructors/administrators.

SFU Child Care Society believes that each of our educators have the skills and ability to lead in their area of expertise. Through the nurturing of collaborative relationships, educators grow in their capacity to engage with new and old philosophies. During this workshop we will explore areas of leadership opportunities that can be nurtured, and examine the role of on-going mentoring with our educators long after practicum and licensing hours are satisfied. By sharing our strategies, we attempt to create a plan for creating leadership in your program/facility.

Objectives:

- To explore areas of leadership opportunities.
- To examine the role of on-going mentoring with educators.
- To discuss strategies to create a plan for encouraging leadership in your program/facility.

Jacqueline is the Program Director at SFU Childcare, overseeing 6 IT programs. She has 25 yrs. experience in the childcare field. Most recently she worked as a Child Care Licensing Officer before going to SFUCCS 3 years ago to support educators in their relationships with children.

Managing Transitions

Presenter: Carolyn Sullivan

Date: Thursday, November 2, 2017

Time: 7:00 - 9:00 pm

Location: BNW (Burnaby)

Fee: $18.00 members, $22.00 non-members

Suitable for all child care providers.

For both children and adults transitions between activities or between home and childcare can be both stressful and frustrating. During this session participants will be presented with strategies to use before, during, and after both types of transitions to promote independence and set a positive tone. There will be an opportunity for participants to reflect on current routines examining what works as well as what might be changed.

Carolyn has been involved in Early Childhood Education and Care for the last 29 years in daycare and preschool, including work with children who have special needs, with preschool children and their mothers learning English, and as a Supported Child Development Consultant. In every environment there have been children who require a bit of extra effort to be included in the group and support through daily or life transitions. These children have been the inspiration for this workshop.

Positive Guidance for Preschoolers

Guiding and caring for preschoolers can be a challenge but it can also be part of a satisfying relationship. This workshop will support caregivers to understand the importance of realistic expectations of children's behaviour, help to strengthen positive communication skills and help develop an understanding about the importance of nurturing social and emotional development in children.

Andrea has worked with young children and their families for the past 20 years, and has supervised in both non-profit and inclusive early childhood programs. Most recently, Andrea worked as part of Vancouver Coastal Health's Early Childhood Mental Health team, focusing on supporting children with emotional and behavioural challenges and their families. Andrea holds an Early Childhood Education diploma as well as a Bachelor's degree in Psychology and a Master's Degree in Counselling Psychology. Andrea currently teaches in the department of Early Childhood Education at Langara College in both the Diploma program and in the Post-Basic Early Childhood Special Education program.

Early Identification

Presenter: Simon Fraser Society for Community Living—Gayle McAllister and Sandra Hogg

Date: Wednesday, November 8, 2017

Time: 7:00 - 9:00 pm

Location: TRI (Coquitlam)

Fee: $18.00 members, $22.00 non- members

Suitable for child care providers of children up to 5 years of age.

Early identification is the process for identifying, as early as possible, children who may need some support with their development. Early detection of developmental issues is essential to providing timely and effective intervention. While there is a wide range of 'typical' development, research shows that early identification of developmental or learning challenges promotes access to early intervention. In this workshop we will discuss typical development, what do we do when we see possible support needs and what will happen when a family is referred.

Gayle and Sandra currently works for Kinsight as Supported Child Development Consultants in the Tri-Cities. They have extensive experience working with children who have a wide range of support needs.

Come prepared to have fun, to learn from each other and to add to your tool kits.

Supported Child Development Consultants at the New Westminster Children's Centre and Spirit of the Children have collectively over 50 years of experience working with children of all ages in different settings.

The Importance of Aesthetics in Early Child Care Settings - A Reggio Emilia Inspired Workshop

Presenter: Ana Valle Rivera

Date: Saturday, November 25, 2017

Time: 9:30 am - 2:00 pm

Location: TRI (Coquitlam)

Fee: $32.00 members, $42.00 non-members

Suitable for child care providers of children 3 years of age and up.

During this workshop participants will expand on the knowledge Early Childhood Educators have regarding Aesthetics in the classroom. Through reflective practice we look at how the concepts of aesthetics can be and are part of our natural lives. We touch on the meaning of Aesthetics as well as the Reggio inspired theory of aesthetics in early childhood settings. We also think about how our image of the child and programming/curriculum affects our environment. We'll go through the benefits of aesthetics and why it is something to be appreciated and nurtured in young children.

Objective:

- To understand the importance of creating and maintaining aesthetics in early child care settings.
- To distinguish materials that will enhance aesthetics and learning in their environment.
- To feel inspired to put it into practice theory, creating a more aesthetically pleasing environment.

Raised in a large and lively family in East Vancouver Ana knew her life's purpose was working with children. Since earning a Diploma and licence in ECE, Special Needs and Infant/Toddler Education, she has worked with children of all ages with differing developmental needs in various childcare settings. Ana has now made it her mission to share her passion and knowledge of child care through her own workshops.

Location: BNW (Burnaby)

Fee: $32.00 members, $42.00 non-members

Suitable for all child care providers.

This workshop is designed to help childcare, preschool centres, and family-drop-in programs, provide spaces that are emotionally supportive for children and families experiencing heightened levels of stress and mental health concerns. The National Institute for Early Education Research notes that around twenty percent of children entering kindergarten lack the social and emotional skills they need to be successful there. Early Childhood Educators and facilitators of community based early childhood programs have the ability to help make a difference in these children's lives through supporting development of these skills and abilities. This workshop will discuss practical ways to increase social and emotional well-being in youngsters through: the setup of physical spaces, listening play, and group activities. Supportive and empathic ways to partner with parents when there are concerns about the emotional and social development of their children will also be explored.

HEALTH (Harnessing the Environment and Activity to Improve Target Behaviours and Mental Health)

A workshop designed to help provide spaces that are emotionally supportive for children and families. Focusing on practical ways to reduce unwanted behaviours and increase overall mental health in preschool aged children. The discussions will incorporate practical ways to support children from a variety of backgrounds and developmental levels.

Reggio Beyond Pinterest: Moving Beyond Aesthetics

Presenter: Karen Begley

Date: Saturday December 16, 2017

Time: 9:30 am - 2:00 pm (4 hours professional development and ½ hour for lunch)

Location: TRI (Coquitlam)

Fee: $32.00 members, $42.00 non-members

Suitable for child care providers of children 2-5 years of age.

The Reggio Beyond Pinterest workshop is designed to empower early learning and childcare professionals to take ownership in their practice and recognize the underlying theories that uphold those actions. We begin with a brief introduction to the Reggio Emilia approach and continue to look at topics of The Image of the Child, Early Years Spaces, and Emergent Curriculum. We will practice looking beyond the aesthetics to identify the drivers behind pedagogical choices.

Karen will share learning stories and ideas from Reggio Emilia resources, Reggio inspired programs, and her own practice. Participants will be guided through a social constructivist, Reggio-inspired framework of critical thinking, collaboration, and creativity to discover more about their own guiding principles. We will make goals and think of small and big changes participants can make to closer align their practice with their beliefs about children, childhood and learning. Participants will leave feeling confident, clear in their purpose, and full of new ideas.
